6.01 The normal hours of work for regular and temporary full-time Employees exclusive of an unpaid meal period are:

- (a) seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours per day;
- (b) thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours per week;

6.02 Hours of work will be deemed to:

- (a) include, as scheduled by the Employer, two (2) rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes each during each seven and one-half (7 1/2) hour work shift; provided that, if overtime is required to be performed for a period of at least two (2) hours after the end of the regular seven and one-half (7 1/2) hour work shift, another rest period of fifteen (15) minutes shall be included which shall be scheduled by the Employer before the overtime work commences;

Employees will not be required to work more than six (6) consecutive hours without a meal break unless otherwise mutually agreed between the Employee and Employer.
- (e) In the event that the Employee is not provided with or is recalled to duty during her meal or rest periods, time off shall be provided later in the shift.

If time off cannot be provided, the Employee shall be paid at the overtime rate set out under Article 7.01 instead of her basic rate of pay for time worked during such occasions.

- 6.03 (a) Shift schedules in the rough shall be posted four (4) weeks in advance to be replaced with firm shift schedules which shall be posted at least two (2) weeks in advance, provided that, in the event of an emergency or where unusual circumstances exist, a change may be made.

- Employees shall be scheduled at least a ten (10) hour rest period between the end of work of the day previous and the start of the next day's work. - 6.05 Employees may be allowed, upon due request to the Manager/Supervisor or designate, to switch shifts provided it does not inconvenience or result in increased cost to the Employer. Employees shall submit shift exchange requests in writing and such must be approved by the Manager/Supervisor or designate.
- 6.06 In the event that an Employee reports for work as scheduled but due to unavailability of work is requested by the Employer to return and commence her work on that day at a later hour, the Employee shall be compensated for the inconvenience by a payment equivalent to four (4) hours of her basic hourly rate, and this payment shall be apart from the payment that will ordinarily be due her for the actual number of hours of work performed on the same day.

- (e) Eligible hours for the purposes of Article 6.07(a) shall include overtime hours worked by the Employee.

6.08 The premiums set out under this Article or any other premium referred to in this collective agreement will not form part of the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay for any purposes.

6.09 Employees shall be scheduled two (2) days off per calendar week. Where operationally feasible the Employer will schedule these two (2) days as consecutive. For the purpose of this Article consecutive days on weekends are defined as either Friday and Saturday, Saturday and Sunday, or Sunday and Monday.

ARTICLE 7 - OVERTIME

7.01 Overtime is all time authorized by the Employer and worked by the Employee in excess of seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours in a regular workday. Overtime worked by an Employee immediately following or immediately preceding her scheduled shift shall be paid at two times (2X) her basic hourly rate for all consecutive hours worked, exclusive of any meal period taken. This overtime payment will cease and the Employee's regular rate will apply at the start of the Employee's next regular scheduled working period. This Article shall not apply when an Employee has exchanged their shift or when an Employee works additional hours on an unscheduled day off or when given to them by another Employee.

- 7.02 (a) Compensating time off in lieu of pay for overtime worked will be granted by the Employer, if operational requirements permit, at the appropriate overtime rate upon the request of the Employee. Such request must be made in writing within one (1) working week following the accumulation of seven and one-half (7 1/2) or more of overtime hours when converted to straight time.
- (b) Should an Employee opt for compensating time off, such time off shall be taken at a date mutually agreed to by the Employee and the Employer, and shall be taken within twelve (12) working weeks of the request. If no written request is received, or if such time off is not taken by the end of the twelve (12) week period, the overtime shall be paid to the Employee. All banked overtime in excess of thirty-seven and one half (37 1/2) hours will be automatically paid out.
- 7.03 Employees required by the Employer to work on their scheduled day(s) off will be paid at the overtime rate set out under Article 7.01 instead of her basic rate of pay for all hours worked. This overtime payment will cease and the Employee's regular rate will apply at the start of her next regular scheduled working period.
- 7.04 Overtime payment will not be duplicated for the same hours worked nor shall there be pyramiding with respect to any other premiums payable under the provisions of this collective agreement, except as stated under Article 6.07 (c) and (e).
- 7.05 If an Employee is required to work overtime and does not receive a total of eight (8) consecutive hours off duty in the twenty-four (24) hour period beginning from the commencement of his shift, then the Employee will not be required to report for duty until the Employee has received a total of eight (8) consecutive hours off duty. In such circumstances, no deduction will be made on the Employee's pay and the Employee's normal shift hours will not be extended to have the Employee work a full shift. The Employee in the above situation will advise his Supervisor in advance of the fact that he will not be reporting for duty at his scheduled time.

ARTICLE 8 – ON-CALL DUTY AND CALL BACK

 - (c) Except in cases of emergency, the Employer shall avoid placing an Employee "on-call" on the day immediately preceding her annual vacation period.

 - (e) Wherever possible, the Employee shall not be assigned to on-call duty more than seven (7) consecutive calendar days.

CALL BACKS

- 8.04 (a) On each occasion that an Employee is called back to duty to the Centre, the Employee shall be deemed to be working overtime and shall be paid for all hours worked during this period at the overtime rate of time and two times (2X) the Employee's basic hourly rate. Payment shall be computed on the basis of time and two times (2X) of the basic hourly rate times three (3) hours if the duration of the call back does not exceed three (3) hours.
- (b) An Employee on an overnight mobile clinic assignment who is required after the completion of the work day to perform any work shall, on each occasion, be deemed to be working overtime and shall be paid for all hours worked, or for three (3) hours, whichever is longer, at the rate of time and two times (2X) of the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay.

- 8.05 An Employee who is called back to the Centre for emergency duty shall be reimbursed for reasonable, necessary and substantiated transportation expense, and if the Employee travels for such purpose by private automobile, reimbursement shall be at the corporate rate per kilometer from the Employee's residence to the Centre and return.

ARTICLE 9 - PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 9.01 New Employees shall serve a probationary period of six hundred hours (600) worked, provided that each full day of absence from work for any reason will extend the probationary period by seven and one half (7 1/2) hours. If a new Employee is unsatisfactory in the opinion of the Employer, such Employee may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without notice and without recourse to the grievance procedure. This probationary period may be extended by up to a maximum of four hundred and fifty (450) hours worked, by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union if required for competency certification.

ARTICLE 10 - PROMOTION AND VACANCY POSTING

10.01 Vacancies

- (a) If the Employer determines that a driver vacancy exists, the Employer shall post such notices of vacancies electronically for regular full-time, regular part-time and temporary positions for not less than six (6) calendar days prior to an appointment being made. The Employer will provide a copy of the vacancy notice to the Union.

- (c) All vacancies shall be filled whenever possible by Employees from within the Department.

- 10.02 All applications for promotion or vacancy within the bargaining unit shall be submitted through the Employer's online application tool.

- 10.03 (a) Applicants for promotions or vacancy shall be informed in writing of their acceptance within five (5) calendar days of the date of the appointment. Unsuccessful applicants shall also be notified within this time period.

- 10.04 In making promotions and filling vacancies, contributing factors are skill, training, knowledge, efficiency and other relevant attributes, and where these factors are considered by the Employer to be relatively equal, seniority shall be the deciding factor.
- 10.05 All promotions shall be on a trial basis. The promoted Employee will be given a trial period of three hundred (300) hours worked in which to demonstrate her ability to perform the new task to the satisfaction of the Employer. Should such Employee fail to succeed during the above-mentioned trial period, or should the Employee request to return to her former position/status, the Employer will reinstate the Employee in her former position/status without loss of seniority. The trial period may be extended for up to an additional three hundred (300) hours worked by mutual agreement of the Employer and Union.
- 10.06 When an Employee is promoted from one classification to another, the salary of such promoted Employee shall be advanced to that step in the scale which is next higher than her current rate or to the step which is next higher again if such salary increase is less than the Employee's next normal annual increment.
- 10.07 As a result of a promotion or filling a vacancy, an Employee's anniversary date for the purpose of an annual increment shall not change.
- 10.08 Subject to meeting the requirements of the posted vacancy, members of the bargaining unit will be given first consideration over external applicants when vacancies are filled.
- 10.09 Upon request, the Union shall be provided with relevant information regarding the competition in question.
- 10.10 (a) Employees, at the time of hire, or transfer, shall be issued a letter stating their employment status, their eligibility for benefits, their basic rate of pay, and their number of hours of scheduled work per pay period as determined over a seven (7) week period. These hours are not to be construed as a guarantee of hours of work or pay.
- (b) In the case of temporary Employees, the letter will identify the approximate duration of the assignment.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

- 11.01 For the purpose of this Agreement, seniority for regular and temporary employees is defined as length of continuous service from the date of hiring and shall be used in determining priorities for right of preference of vacation period, consideration for layoff, recall, and promotion within the bargaining unit.
- 11.02 (a) The Employer will maintain and post an up-to-date seniority list once per year, on or about September first, and forward a copy to the Union. The listing shall be provided monthly if there are Employees on layoff.
- (b) An Employee may question an inaccuracy of their seniority within thirty (30) calendar days of the posting of such list. The Employee shall submit in writing to the Employer a request to have their seniority reviewed and will provide the reasons supporting this review. Where the matter is not resolved within ten (10) working days, an individual grievance may be initiated at Step 1 of the grievance procedure.

- 11.04 Seniority shall be considered broken, all rights forfeited, and employment terminated and there shall be no obligation to rehire:

ARTICLE 14 - SICK LEAVE

- 14.01 The Sick Leave Plan herewith presented provides for continuation of payment of salary as set forth in the table of credits outlined in this plan to Employees who are absent due to bona fide illness. Its purpose is to ensure insofar as is reasonable and just that the Employee shall not be deprived of income while absent due to illness. Credits are established on the basis of length of service and are cumulative. No contributions are required from the Employee. Each Employee should be informed of the privileges under this policy and encouraged to guard against unnecessary use of sick leave grants in order that the maximum credit may be available in time of real need.

- 14.02 All regular Employees and probationary Employees are eligible for benefits provided under this plan during the period a person has regular Employee status under the regulations of Canadian Blood Services.

It is not to be construed, however, that the provisions under this policy give any Employee the right to be retained in the service of Canadian Blood Services or any right or claim for sick benefits after termination of service.

If an Employee is unable to resume duty at the expiration of an authorized leave of absence, her service may be terminated without prejudice to any rights the Employee may have under the terms of the Long Term Disability Plan and the Pension Plan of Canadian Blood Services.

If the Employee's residence is closer to the mobile clinic than the Centre, and if the Employee chooses to go directly home, transportation to their residence shall be provided by the Employer.

14.04 The amount of credit an Employee has at a particular date is based on the Employee's length of continuous service in completed years to that date, less any benefits that the Employee has received in the previous five (5) year period.

14.05 Based on continuous service, sick leave credits will accrue to each Employee as listed below. (NOTE: Reference to days herein below means working days.)

- (b) If an Employee becomes ill during her vacation period, as stated in Article 14.12 (a), sick leave will be granted only after the expiry of the Employee's vacation and provided the illness continues beyond the vacation. LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING # 4

Between

CANADIAN BLOOD SERVICES
(hereinafter referred to as "the Employer")

and

HEALTH SCIENCES ASSOCIATION OF ALBERTA
(hereinafter referred to as "the Union ")

RE: DECREASING OR INCREASING FTE

The parties agree that it may be of mutual benefit to the Employees and the Employer to allow Regular Full Time and Regular Part Time Employees to decrease or increase their FTE within their classification and work area in the Centre/satellite site.

An Employee requesting to decrease or increase her regular hours of work shall make written application to her Supervisor, indicating the requested FTE and specifying whether the request is for a temporary or permanent decrease/increase. Where the request is for a temporary decrease or increase, the application shall specify the period for which it is made. The maximum time for such temporary decrease or increase is twelve (12) months. A request that has been e-mailed from the employee's CBS e-mail account shall constitute written request.

The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of the employee's request at the time it is submitted.

The Employer shall have the right to accept or reject any request to decrease or increase FTE based upon operational requirements including but not limited to staff skills mix, individual performance issues, etc.

The Employer shall indicate approval or disapproval in writing within 28 days of receipt of the Employee's request, and such request shall not be unreasonably denied.

Where the number of Employees making such requests exceeds the number of requests that may be granted, the requests shall be granted in order of seniority. However, no Employee shall have an approved request rescinded as a result of another Employee exercising her seniority. If the Employee's request cannot be granted, the Employer shall indicate to that Employee whether an alternate choice of FTE can be accommodated whereupon the Employee shall have the ability to amend her or his request.

The Employer may establish reasonable limits defining how often an individual Regular Employee in a work area can initiate a request to increase or decrease her regular hours of work.

Where a request for either reduction or increase in FTE is not approved by the Employer, the Employee may request that their submission be maintained on file for future consideration, for up to six (6) months.

Decreases in hours of work

No regular hours of work shall be eliminated due to an Employee's decrease in regular hours of work. The regular hours vacated as a result of granting an Employee's request to decrease regular hours of work may be offered, in order of seniority, to Regular Part-time Employees in the classification and work area, posted as a vacancy, or offered as additional hours in accordance with Article 6.02(c).

A Regular Full-time or Regular Part-time Employee can not decrease her or his regular hours of work to less than a .50 of the regular full time hours pursuant to this Letter, unless otherwise agreed between the Employer, the Employee and the Union.

Increases in Regular Hours of Work

No Employee shall be permitted to increase her FTE pursuant to this letter while other Employees are on recall, as long as the laid off Employees can perform the work required.

The Employer may approach Regular Part Time Employees from within the classification and work area in the Centre/satellite site, in order of seniority, with opportunities to increase their regular hours of work. The maximum increase that can be offered is a .40 FTE.

This provision is not intended to circumvent the posting and recall provisions of Article 12: Promotions, Demotions, Transfers, and Vacancies or Article 23: Layoff, Displacement and Recall in circumstances where a position of greater than .40 FTE has become vacant. In such case, the Employer shall first attempt to fill the vacancy in accordance with Article 12: Promotions, Demotions, Transfers, and Vacancies and Article 23: Layoff, Displacement and Recall.

The parties shall, at the request of either party, discuss the provisions of this Letter of Understanding and assess potential modifications via the Joint Committee.

Where the Employer finds it necessary to lay off employees, it may canvass Employees to see if any Employees wish to voluntarily terminate their employment and receive a severance payment calculated in accordance with Article 20.10. Employees who so choose will not be entitled to notice of layoff.

The Employer shall determine the number of voluntary terminations to accept and the last day of work for accepted employees.
